I have a wedding dress I purchased this past March from David's Bridal in a size 14. It comes with everything. The long veil the 2 tier slip the padded cups...etc... The price I purchased it at was $1689.53. (Still have the receipt). It is currently in a keepsake box that I had sent off to get professionally done. It also comes with the garment bag that you put it in and it zips up. The pictures are of it in the keepsake box. I am going to leave it in there until someone seems interested to preserve it from being damaged. I am asking considerably lower than what I paid which means your getting a steal.
